LOCAL MATTERS.

The Christmas Trade.

All the indications promise a larger Christmas trade this season than usual. Purchasers from city and country who generally buy largely from full and unbroken stocks are already in the market; and old merchants, who know from exare busy arranging attractive holiday goods on shelf and counter to meet the golden tide perience that these are their best customers,

CONGRESSMAN-ELECT AND STATE SENATOR DRAW PISTOLS.—Yesterday at Abingdon, we are told, Congressman-elect Fulkerson and State Senator C. T. Smith had a meeting, but no blood was shed. Mr. Smith was seen by Mr. Fulkerson approaching him, and supposing he had come to "settle" a previous misunderstanding, drew a pisto and told Mr. Smith not to approach. Mr. Smith also drew his pistol; but after some SEALSKIN SACQUES

FUNERAL OF MR. HILTZHIMER.-Mr. Thomas M. Hiltzhimer, whofdied in Staunton on Monday, was buried yesterday from Trinity church at 2 P. M., his remains hav-ing been brought down on the express train. Rev. Mr. Judkins officiated. Friendship Lodge, I. O. O. F., took part in the ceremonies, and the remains were interred in Oakwood cemetery. There were eight MEGE, SCARLET, and MEDICATED UN-DERWEAR, costing 50c, to $5; bad been a member for forty years, and four from the Odd-Fellows. Mr. Hiltzbimer was an old and respected citizen, and had many friends here who will regret his death.

Bonds.-Messrs. Davenport & Co. give notice that the 7 per cent. bonds of this company have been advanced to par and ma-tured interest. Three-fifths of the bonds of this company authorized by law to be issued bave been sold. The remainder are issued only at the rate of fourteen thousand dollars per mile of road as completed. It is evidence both of their confidence in the Fichues. Of this department we make a specialty, management and of the prosperous future of this road that many of our own people are investing in these bonds.

> Fire-Alarm — A pot of far caught on fire near the Southern Fertilizing Mill (Libby Prison) yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock, and caused an alarm of fire to be turned in from Box 7, at engine-house near Twentieth street. After giving in detail the statements showing the operations of the road, etc., General-Superintendent Kline says: The track has been resurfaced and ballasted where necessary.

The ditches are being cleaned out, and the road-bed built up to give a full and steady bearing to the cross-ties. The banks were widened on the revers curves approaching the Falling Creek bridge, and the track changed to a straight During the year 6,622 cross-ties were put in the track.

The s.de-tracks in the yard at Richmond have been extended, as far as practicable, to meet the demands for increased facilities in bandling freight.

BRIDGES.

The plate-iron girder bridge over Falling creek was completed April 10, 1880, at a total cost of $9,057.59.

Unless the plan suggested in last annual report of replacing the wooden structure across Swift creek is carried out this year it will be necessary to expend enough in renewals to roof and partly weatherboard, in order to maintain it in good condition. The James-River bridge will require new wall-plates and bolsters, and some repairs All the bridges are in safe condition, and received the usual ordinary repairs during

The turn-table at Petersburg was rebull during the year at a cost of $200.55.

The inward depôt—south side of Byrd street, at Richmond—bes been extended 85 feet in length by 22 feet in width; cost, $650.36. The outward depot-north side of Byrd street-increased 160 feet in length by 15 feet in width; cost, $517 98.

The tracks in the yard have been extended and altered to suit the improvements. A new stock-pen has also been built in the yard of outward depôt at Richmond, and track extended across Byrd street and parallel with the stock-pen to the end of the company's property; cost, $197.72.

All the depôts and buildings of the company received the necessary repairs during

All necessary repairs have been kept up in this department, and your attention is invited to Table IX., showing in detail the condition of the locomotives.

Repaired and rebuilt during the year two first-class passenger-cars, two baggage-cars, and four platform-cars. Three of the cars of this company, form ing the through line between Washington and Wilmington, bave been equipped with Janney platforms and couplers, Cost, $819.13. Six new freight box-cars, bought from the Tredegar Company in February, 1880, have been added to the equipment. In addition to the above, the ordinar running repairs to passenger-, freight-, and coal-cars have been fully kept up.

ACCIDENTS.

On the morning of May 5th the passen-ger-car on the rear of No. 5 freight train ran off at Temple's turnout, caused by a defective frog, damaging one truck and end of the car. Nobody hurt. No other accident worthy of note occurred during the

It affords me great pleasure to record the teady and faithful performance of duty on the part of employes generally. I am much indebted to the heads of departments for their efficient and earnest support. Respectfully submitted.

Among the spring attractions are the great Soldene and Salvini.

Miss Nella Brown.—A good audience greeted this lady Monday night, but she ought to have had an audifor for every seat in the hall. Some of her renditions were unsurpassable. One of these moved many in her audience to tears. The fact tells more than can be crowded into a mere newspaper notice. Young, handsome, graceful, of fine voice, she readily rivets attention and holds it throughout. Better known in Richmond, she will be a decided menced. favorite here. Those who know her say that she is as modest and fascinating in private as she is magnetic in public. She will appear again on Friday evening next at Mozart Hall in a most attractive programme. On that occasion Madame Bernard, who has been engaged, and probably Mr. Hoff or Mr. Grant, will sing, with piano accompaniment by Mr. Reinbardt. The programme in full will be duly announced.
